“If you want to know about a culture, spend a night in its bars”

Ernest Hemingway

Cocktails

VESPER MARTINI...138:-

Beefeater Gin, Absolut Vodka, Lillet Vermouth

The drink derived from "Casino Royale", the first Ian Fleming novel featuring James Bond. Sitting at the Bacarat table, Bond orders a drink composed by one part gin, one part vodka and half a part of Lillet Vermouth. Stirred ice cold and poured over a lemon spiral. The drink is named after Bond's greatest (and only?) love, Vesper Lynd.

SRI LANKA SOUR...138:-

Havana Club, Mancino Bianco, Lime, Cardamom

In the beginning of the fourth century, sailors, on their way home from Sri Lanka and southern India brought the green cardamom to Europe. Here mixed with mint, rum and vermouth, it brings flavours to a fresh, sour cocktail with a hint of freshly baked bread to entice your tastebuds.

LA FLORIDITA...138:-

Havana Club, Marschino, Lime

Our dear friend Ernest drank Daiquiries and lots of them. He was, on the other hand, diabetic and drank his cocktails with as little sugar as possible and with grape juice. We think a balance is necessary so we prepare this one with lower bitterness and a bit of sweetness from the cherry liqueur.

MEXICAN CAPER...138:-

Beefeater Gin, Arette Añejo Tequila, Cointreau, Capers

Two of our favourite sprits are here mixed with orange liqueur and the spiciness of capers (cocktail capers of course) An alternative to a Dry Martini for the adventurous. Both savoury and intense, just the way Ernest liked it.

Cocktails

HEMINGWAY DAIQUIRI...138:-

Havana Club, Lime, Grape

In 1921 at "El Floridita" in Havana this drink was created as an homage to Hemingway and his love for Daiquiries. Since Ernest was a diabetic the sugar content was kept to a minimum. If you want it sweeter, just ask and we'll help you.

NEGRONI BIANCO...138:-

Beefeater, Cocchi Americano

At Prinsen we feel that a drink menu without a Negroni isn't really a drink menu. This version, without the famous Campari, is a little sweeter than the original but with a freshness from both Cocchi and a dash or two of Orange Bitters.

MINT JULEP...148:-

Four Roses Bourbon, Mynta, Icing sugar

Julep is first mentioned as medicin in the 17th century. The name derived from the Arabic word for Rose Water. The Drink has been made in countless variations but our version saw daylight at the end of the 19th century. Since 1938 this drink has been served at The Churchill Downs during the Kentucky Derby. Approximately 120.000. Juleps are served every Derby, making it "their own" drink.

FIRST WORD MK IV...138:-

Hendrick's Gin, Maraschino, Chartreuse, Cucumber

Hendrick's Gin with Tonic and Cucumber is a modern classic. After making this drink in abundance our bar manager decided to make a cocktail with the same taste-style. The result was a sour with flavours of cucumber, juniper, quinine and herbs.

Cocktails

THE OLD CUBAN...148:-

Appleton estate 12 yo rum, mint, lime, Angostura, Champagne

This cocktail could have been Hemingway's favourite. It contains flavours we know he loved but it's not certain he ever got to try this fabulous drink, composed by Audrey Saunders at the Pegu Club, NY. A Cocktail worth it's name and one you need to try before you die. And yeah we add a little sugar for the balance.

Cocktails

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS... 138:-

Ballantines, Averna, Ginger, Egg white

Named after the famous Hemingway novel - this cocktail was created with inspiration both from the "Vertigo" and the "Angel Of Death". An explosion of flavours with both heat and bitterness.

KNICKERBOCKER ROYALE...148:-

Martell VSOP, Havanna Club, Orange Curacao, Citron, Champagne

Created around 1850 and named after The Knickerbocker Hotel in New York. It is said that Ernest Hemingway spent his last night in New York at this hotel before flying to Paris with his first wife, Hadley Richardson. We make it a "Royale" by topping it with Champagne.

THE BRAMBLE ...138:-

Beefeater, Merlet Mire

A bramble is a blackberry bush. Hence the name of the drink containing Blackberry liqueur. Created by Dick Bradsell at Fred's in Soho, London in the mid 80's this is possibly the most tasty and beautiful thing created there and then.

WIDOW'S KISS... 138:-

Busnel VSOP, D.O.M Benedictine, Chartreuse

In 1895, "The Modern American Drinks" by George Kappler, is published. This is the first time "The Widow's Kiss" is mentioned in writing. Talk about a classic, huh? This is the ultimate after dinner cocktail packed with flavours, sweetness, bitterness and intensity.

'Cat in the Rain'

There were only two Americans stopping at the hotel. They did not know any of the people they passed on the stairs on their way to and from their room. Their room was on the second floor facing the sea. It also faced the public garden and the war monument. There were big palms and green benches in the public garden.

In the good weather there was always an artist with his easel. Artists liked the way the palms grew and the bright colors of the hotels facing the gardens and the sea.
